AAMANN'S

At Aamanns the foundation is our organic sourdough bread, which adds consistency, sweetness and bitterness, and provides a taste and textural counterpart to the cold cuts on top.

Bread, meat, vegetables, herbs, emulsions and crunchy elements are carefully dosed, and constitute a complete aesthetic whole, focusing on the overall flavour impression.

Our respect for the chef's craft is a driving force. We make everything from scratch, and of quality ingredients. We choose to pickle, braise, roast and bake ourselves. Fruits and vegetables are in season, the fish is sustainable, and our meat comes from animals that have lived a decent life in the open air. Flour and dairy products are organic.

It is possible to order gluten-free bread!

Aamanns is only able to deliver for tours departing from 12:00 onwards.

OLIOLI

POKE BAR

Poké bowls originate from Hawaiian cuisine. For those unfamiliar with the concept, they can best be described as a sushi salad: raw fish, sushi rice, and fresh vegetables – all cut into cubes, as the name poké also means.

At OLIOLI, our poké bowls have been given an Asian and Scandinavian twist, offering more than the classic version. In addition to raw fish, we also offer tofu and chicken, combined with fresh vegetables, delicious marinades, and flavorful dressings.

There are vegan and vegetarian options available.
